

giz

Beijing Climate Leadership Talk

with Dr. Gerd Leipold, Program Director Climate Transparency

Date: 15:30-20:30, Tuesday, 11th September 2018

Venue: Concert Hall, Capital Club (Add: 50F Capital Mansion, No. 6 Xin Yuan Nan Road, Chao Yang District, Beijing, China)

Moderator: Dr. Alex Fisher, Head of Division for Climate, Environment, Natural Resources
giz-CHINA

15:30-16:00	Welcome and Registration (Drinks and Snacks are available)
16:00-16:05	Welcome Remarks from giz-CHINA
16:05-16:40	Invited Presentation Title: Comparing the Climate Action of the G20 countries - Who will take the lead? By Dr. Gerhard Leipold, Former Executive Director of Greenpeace between 2001 and 2009. Today he advises companies on sustainability, works with scientific institutions to improve their communication and supports NGOs with strategy development and communication. At present he coordinates the Climate Transparency Partnership.
16:40-17:30	Tour-de-Table Each representative will be asked to provide their thoughts on the following guiding topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Three years after Paris: Where should climate leadership come from? Governments, business or civil society? • How can countries be convinced to scale up their climate ambitions? • How can we stimulate competition on climate ambitions between G20 countries? • What role could China play in the international climate process?
17:30-18:00	Discussion
18:00-18:30	Transition/Networking
18:30-19:30	Dinner
19:30-20:30	Get-together